

W.O.W. 'WATCH ON WORDS'

Welcome to our new site.

Each month, 'W.O.W.' will be looking at common English mistakes found on our school campus.

Just click in to improve your English

This week features two expressions that are easily confused.

'Pay attention to' and 'Put effort into'

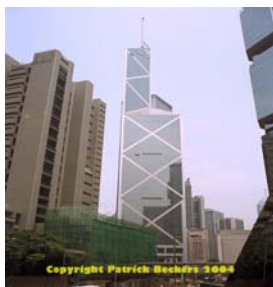

Try this easy way to remember.

P.A.T. = Pay Attention To

P.E.I. = Put Effort Into

This is the surname of the world famous Chinese architect, I. M. PEI who designed the Bank of China here in Hong Kong.

Remember

Pay attention to your teachers and put effort into your work.

Happy Learning!

September 2009